

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY

GENERAL ORDER NO. 22-06

CASE ASSIGNMENT AND RECUSAL ORDER

*** **

The Court being sufficiently advised, it is hereby

ORDERED that, effective August 31, 2022, all newly-filed cases shall be assigned and/or reassigned in the following manner:

1. (Social Security Cases) All social security cases, regardless of the docket on which they are filed, shall be randomly and equally assigned from the pool of all active district judges. Should the judge assigned to the case recuse, the matter shall be reassigned by random draw to another judge from the pool of all active district judges. Senior judges are excluded from the assignment of social security cases except by agreement as outlined in paragraph 8 below.

2. (Death Penalty Cases) All death penalty cases shall be assigned as outlined in General Order No. 18-13, which is incorporated here by reference.

3. (28 U.S.C. § 2254 Petitions) All petitions seeking a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, regardless of the docket on which they are filed, shall be randomly and equally assigned from the pool of all active district judges and Senior District Judge William O. Bertelsman. Should the judge assigned to the case recuse, the matter shall be reassigned by random draw to another judge from the pool of all active district judges and Judge Bertelsman.

4. (Pro Se and Prisoner Cases) All civil actions filed by a party or parties in a pro se capacity, including prisoners and others in custody not seeking relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2254 or 2255, regardless of the docket on which they are filed, shall be randomly and equally assigned from the pool of all active district judges and Judge Bertelsman. Should the judge assigned to the case recuse, the matter shall be reassigned by random draw to another judge from the pool of all active district judges and Judge Bertelsman.

5. Subject to paragraphs 1 through 4 above, all remaining cases shall be assigned and/or reassigned in the following manner:

A. Northern Division at Ashland

Civil cases are assigned to United States District Judge David L. Bunning (100%). Should Judge Bunning recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Chief United States District Judge Danny C. Reeves.

Criminal cases are assigned to Judge Bunning (100%). Should Judge Bunning recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Reeves.

B. Northern Division at Covington

Civil cases are assigned to Judge Bertelsman (60%) and Judge Bunning (40%). Should Judge Bertelsman recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Bunning. Should Judge Bunning recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Bertelsman.

Criminal cases are assigned to Judge Bunning (100%). Should Judge Bunning recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Reeves.

C. Central Division at Frankfort

Civil cases are assigned to United States District Judge Gregory F. Van Tatenhove (100%). Should Judge Van Tatenhove recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to United States District Judge Karen K. Caldwell.

Criminal cases are assigned to Judge Van Tatenhove (100%). Should Judge Van Tatenhove recuse, the matter shall be assigned to Judge Caldwell.

D. Central Division at Lexington

Civil cases are assigned to Judge Reeves (40%), Judge Caldwell (40%), and Judge Van Tatenhove (20%). Should the judge assigned to the case recuse, the matter shall be reassigned by random draw to another judge assigned to accept civil cases on this docket.

Criminal cases are assigned to Judge Reeves (40%), Judge Caldwell (40%), and Judge Van Tatenhove (20%). Should the judge assigned to the case recuse, the matter shall be reassigned by random draw to another judge assigned to accept criminal cases on this docket.

E. Southern Division at London

Civil cases are assigned to United States District Judge Robert E. Wier (50%) and United States District Judge Claria H. Boom (50%). Should Judge Wier recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Boom. Should Judge Boom recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Wier.

Criminal cases are assigned to Judge Wier (60%) and Judge Boom (40%). Should Judge Wier recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Boom. Should Judge Boom recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Wier.

F. Southern Division at Pikeville

Civil cases are assigned to Judge Bunning (50%) and Judge Wier (50%). Should Judge Bunning recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Wier. Should Judge Wier recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Bunning.

Criminal cases are assigned to Judge Wier (100%). Should Judge Wier recuse, the matter shall be reassigned to Judge Reeves.

6. Should all judges assigned civil cases on a particular docket recuse, the matter shall be referred to Judge Reeves for reassignment to another active or senior district judge willing to accept the assignment.

7. Should all judges assigned criminal cases on a particular docket recuse, the matter shall be referred to Judge Reeves for reassignment to another active or senior district judge willing to accept the assignment.

8. Any active or senior district judge is authorized to reassign a case to another active or senior district judge willing to accept the assignment.

9. If all active and senior district judges recuse from a case or are unwilling or unable to accept the assignment, the matter shall be referred to the Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit for reassignment.

10. Effective August 31, 2022, this General Order supersedes General Order No. 21-14.

Dated: August 1, 2022.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Danny C. Reeves".

Danny C. Reeves, Chief Judge
United States District Court
Eastern District of Kentucky