

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
NORTHERN DIVISION
COVINGTON

IN RE: CIVIL AND CRIMINAL ASSIGNMENTS

STANDING ORDER 15-1

* * * * *

Effective January 1, 2015, all civil matters assigned on the Covington docket, with the exception of pro se civil rights and prisoner cases, petitions for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, and social security cases, will be randomly paired with the following Magistrate Judges in the percentages set forth herein:

Magistrate Judge J. Gregory Wehrman 50%
Magistrate Judge Candace J. Smith 50%

Effective January 1, 2015, any referral to the Magistrate Judge in any civil matter affected by this Order will be referred to the Magistrate Judge chosen by blind draw at the time the civil matter was filed.

Effective January 1, 2015, all criminal matters on the Covington docket, regardless of filing date, and with the exception of motions to vacate, correct or modify a sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, are assigned to Magistrate Judge Candace J. Smith.

This 9th day of January, 2015.

Signed By:

David L. Bunning DB

United States District Judge